Do It Now

If with pleasure you are viewing anything
a man is doing:
If you like him or you love him, tell him now.
Don't withhold your approbation till the parson makes oration.
As he lies with snowy lilies o'er his brow,
For no matter how you shout it, he won't really care about it:
He won't know how many teardrops you have shed.
If you think some praise is due him, now's
the time to slip it to him,
For he cannot read his tombstone when
he's dead.

More than fame and more than money is the comment, kind and sunny, And the hearty warm approval of a friend,
For it gives to life a savor and it makes you stronger, braver,
And it gives you heart and spirit to the end.
If he earns your praise, bestow it; if you like him, let him know it; Let the words of true encouragement be said.
Do not wait till life is over and he's underneath the clover.
For he cannot read his tombstone when
he's dead.

What We Owe To The East.

The European should not forget what he owes to the Asiatic—to the East. The sun, which we say rises in the east, is a symbol of intellectual light. Learning first arose in the east, and advancing westward, shed its beneficial rays over all the world. Should we desire to know how much we owe to the east we have but to look at the clock which tells us the hour of the day.
It was an invention of the east, as were sun-dials. The beautiful prayer which we utter for our daily bread first rose to the throne of God from the foot of a Syrian Mountain. The linen and cotton cloth with which we clothe ourselves, though they may be very fine, yet is inferior to those which have been woven from time immemorial in the looms of India.
The method of producing and weaving silk was stolen by missionaries from the Chinese centuries ago. We could buy a better razor, or a knife, or a sword, in the ancient city of Damascus in Syria, where steel was first invented, than we could in any other city in the world. The coffee we drink for our breakfast was first grown by the Arabians, and the natives of Northern India were the first to prepare the sugar with which we sweeten it.

Most of us are fond of tea. The leaf from which that stimulating beverage is brewed was first cultivated in China ages ago, and we also know that the Chinese taught us how to make the cup and saucer in which we serve it. The beautiful tray on which the cups and saucers are carried is lacquered with a peculiar kind of hard enamel. The Japanese were the first to discover the method of lacquering metal and stone ware.
The Jews eat unleavened bread at the feast of the Passover. The first unleavened bread was made from flour mixed with the water of the Ganges in India. The eggs which we eat for our breakfast were laid by fowls which were descendants of those which were first brought from Malacca. We preserve our cherries, our peaches and our plums, which we eat with great relish and satisfaction, but we should not forget that these fruits originally came from the land of the ancient fire-worshippers, Persia. We use alcohol for a thousand and one purposes. Now alcohol was first distilled by the Arabians, and when we use the words "coffee" and "alcohol" we are using two Arabic words. The founder of the Mohammedan religion knew the injurious effects of alcohol on the human body, and he not only pointed this out to his followers, but he absolutely forbade the use of alcoholic liquor; and it is worthy of note that there are 200,000,000 of his followers today who totally abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors. The orientals taught us to adorn ourselves with pearls, rubies, diamonds and sapphires. We behold with great delight, on occasions of public rejoicing, a fine display of fireworks.
Ages before such things were thought of in Europe, the Chinese and Indians were past masters in the manufacture and exhibition of pyrotechnics. The games of chess and racquets were played by the Egyptians centuries before they were known in Europe. We have no hydraulic constructions that can equal the ancient Chinese canals, nor have we a fortification that can compare with that stupendous structure the Chinese wall, that extends for thousands of miles across valleys and over hills and mountains. We learned how to dig artesian wells in China, and some of these wells in China are 3000 feet deep.

And what shall we say of the scientific knowledge which has come down to us from the east throughout the ages long gone by?
While the learned men of Europe were condemning as contrary to the doctrines of the Christian faith, the Caliph Al Maimon was measuring the length of a degree along the shores of the Red Sea and his Arab successor repeatedly determined the obliquity of the elliptic. A Saracen explained the nature of twilight and showed the importance of allowing for atmospheric refraction in astronomical observations.
Algebra was invented and brought into Europe by the Mohammedans.
The word algebra is Arabic, and it is to the Arabs we owe the letters of the alphabet.

It is needless to record any further instances of our obligations to the east. Wherever we go, wherever we turn, we find evidence of the influence which the east has exerted on our arts, sciences, learning and civilization, and when we realize the great power of this influence, we shall be less prone to extol our own progress beyond its deserts.—Irene, in Rome, N. Y.,

GOOD AMERICANISM!

The American Legion is now an organization one million strong.
It is composed of boys and men who made up the great American Army that saved the nation and the world when the time came to fight for American ideals.

The preamble to the Legion's constitution breathes a spirit of fine Americanism as follows:
"For God and country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a 100 per cent. Americanism; . . .
to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, State, and nation; to comfort the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and goodwill on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness."

If the American Legion lives up to these purposes it will deserve well of the country. If the whole nation—especially the boys and girls now in school—will take these purposes to heart there need be no fear for the future of our American institutions.

Nature's Wonderful Work.

The Great Barrier reef of Australia varies in width from ten to ninety miles, and is 1,255 miles long—a monumental result of the labors of myriads of tiny animals! Atolls, or coral rings inclosing a lagoon (with no central islands), have been responsible for a deal of animated discussion; the generally accepted theory now being that the existing ring began as usual around and near to an island which has subsequently sunk and passed from knowledge, the coral keeping pace in upward growth—varying with circumstances from roughly one to three inches per year—with the sinking foundation. Barbados is built up almost entirely of coral, lumps of it taking the place of stones in the naturally shallow soil of the island, and the now high and dry dolomites of Austria are largely old coral reefs.

Not in Modern Flats.

From the time of the Greek philosophers, Epicurus and Democritus, until about 1800, heat was considered a form of matter.

WATCHING THE CLOCK

Time never goes so slow as when you watch the minute hand creep around the dial, wishing it'd come time to quit work so you could go fishing, or shoot a game of pool—or just quit work.

A cartoon in a recent Sunday newspaper showed a bunch of carpenters at work on a ball ground's bleachers. They worked with one eye on the game, but not even the game could keep them on the job when the whistle blew for 4:30. The score was tied, with a man on base and two out, but when the whistle blew, they departed from that ball field as though a smallpox flag had been hung out.

Clock watching is a habit, and a miserable one. There's nothing more tedious than watching a minute hand circle the face of the clock, and no work harder than the allied evil of keeping an eye "peeled" to see when the boss is looking your way. Like most bad habits, they are easy to form and hard to break. There is no royal road—the remedy is to just "saw wood."—Wingfoot Clan.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS LAW POINTS

Each individual in a partnership is responsible for the whole amount of the debts of the firm, except in cases of "special partnerships." Contracts made on Sunday can not be enforced.

A contract made with a minor is void.

The acts of one partner bind all the other partners.

It is a fraud to conceal a fraud.
No consideration is sufficient in law if it is illegal in its nature.
(Many "failures" are upset because of this law.)

A receipt for money is not always conclusive.

Ignorance of the law excuses no one.

Note especially the following, as affecting the giving and taking of checks and notes:

A note made on Sunday is void.

A note made by a minor is void.

A note obtained by fraud, or from a person in a state of intoxication, cannot be collected.

Notes bear interest only when so stated.

If a note is lost or stolen, it does not release the maker; he must pay it if the consideration for which it was given and the amount can be proven.

Signatures made in lead pencil
are good in law.

A note indorsed in blank is transferable by delivery, the same as if made payable to bearer.

The maker of an "accommodation" note (one for which he has received no consideration, having lent his name and credit for the accommodation of the holder), is not bound to the person accommodated, but is bound to all other parties, precisely as if there was a good consideration.

If the maker of a check or draft has changed his residence, the holder must use "due diligence" to find him. Checks or drafts must be presented for payment
"without unreasonable delay."

Mean Man.

"Why is it that the deaf and dumb woman who is such a splendid cook and worker, has been unable to get a job?"
"Easily explained. She can't retail the gossip of the neighborhood."

Coral Fisheries.

In consideration of its slow growth the coral reefs are fished once only in ten years, the fishing boats engaged in this extremely lucrative business varying in size from three to fourteen tons. The most valuable fisheries are among the coral reefs off Tunisia, Algeria, and Morocco, the raw material going chiefly to Italy. The red coral of the Mediterranean and Red Sea is exported in large quantities to India for the manufacture of ornaments and articles of personal adornment. The black coral of the Persian gulf and Great Barrier reef is still more highly prized.

World's Highest Village.

A writer in a recent issue of L'Astronomie calls attention to a tiny village in Kashmir, which holds the lofty distinction of being the highest on earth. This village, which bears the name of Karzok, is located at latitude 32 degrees 58 minutes 0.90 seconds north, and longitude 78 degrees 18 minutes 13.95 seconds east from Greenwich.
Its altitude is 4,556 meters, or 14,946 feet. The village contains a few wretched stone houses and a small Buddhist monastery.

West Virginia Association of the Deaf.

ROMNEY, W. VA., July 20, 1920.—The fourth meeting of the West Virginia Association of the Deaf will be held at the West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and the Blind at Romney, W. Va., September 2d-6th, 1920, to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the School for the Deaf.
All former pupils and deaf residents of the state will be provided with board and lodging at the school at the rate of five dollars ($5.00) from Thursday evening until Monday morning. They can come to the school on Thursday afternoon and claim reservations, but no meals will be served on that day. The first meal will begin with breakfast on Friday, and the last one will end with breakfast on Monday. All will leave the school on Monday before dinner (or as soon as the session adjourns sine die). Non-members or visitors will be charged fifty cents each for lodging and fifty cents for each meal.

All are requested to make their reservations to Mrs. Chas. D. Seaton, Chairman of the local committee, Romney, W. Va., at a date as early as possible, and to register upon arrival in town.

In case you should prefer to put up at a hotel down town, write and state exactly what you wish to pay.
We will do our best. The rate at the Hampshire Hotel (formerly the Century Hotel) is $4.00 per day and up, and at the Romney Hotel, it is $3.00 and up.

Four trains run between Romney and Green Spring daily, except Sunday, as follows:

Leave Romney DAILY at 5:45
A.M., 8:35 A.M., 11:20 A.M. and 5:25
P.M.

Arrive at Romney DAILY at 7:45
A.M., 10:55 A.M., 2:15 P.M. and 8:30
P.M.

SUNDAY ONLY, leave Romney at 11:20 A.M. and return at 2:15 P.M.

It is with regret that we announce the fact that Superintendent F. L.
Burdette has tendered his resignation to take effect as soon as his successor is appointed and qualifies.
This will in no way affect the meeting of the association. Plans and arrangements for the meeting will go on as though nothing unusual will happen. We hope that he will be present to receive us, even if he should not be connected with the school in an official capacity when the association meets. In any event we have no doubt that the welcome will be as cordial under his successor whoever he may be.

Make up your mind to attend the convention and see your old school once more. Won't you believe us when we tell you that Romney is not the same sleepy old town that it used to be? Come and see for yourself. Write to your chums, classmates, schoolmates and friends (do not even forget your beau or sweetheart) and tell them to come and meet you at Romney. If you cannot come yourself, tell them to attend the convention and write you about it after it is over. Be sure that you will miss a good time if you fail to come. Come by all means. Another opportunity to meet the old may not present itself again. Boost the convention and urge your friends to attend it.
The larger the attendance, the merrier the crowd.

Send fifty cents to the treasurer and join the association as the next best thing to show your interest in it in case circumstances prevent you being present in person.

Very sincerely yours,
CHAS. D. SEATON, President.
OREN CARMY, Secretary.

Philippine Climate Healthy.

The climate of the Philippines is one of the best in the tropics. The islands extends from 5 degrees to 21 degrees north latitude, and Manila is in 14 degrees 35 minutes.
The thermometer during July and August rarely goes below 79 or above 85. The extreme ranges in a year are said to be 61 and 97, and the annual mean temperature 81.
There are three well marked seasons—temperate and dry from November to February, hot and dry from March to May, and temperate and wet from June to October. The rainy season reaches its maximum in July and August, when the rains are constant and very heavy. The total rainfall has been as high as 114 inches in one year.

Construction of Coral Reefs

The greatest depth at which the reef-building corals can work is between twenty and thirty fathoms.
Confined to water, the temperature of which in the coldest weather does not fall below 68 degrees F., coral reefs are abundant in the Pacific and Indian oceans and near West Indies, and are most plentiful where volcanic upheavals are not looked upon as extraordinary. The foundation of the living coral, which extends in many reefs far below this depth, is no longer living, the once elevated portion of the seabed, the peaks upon which the now dead foundations rest, having subsided, the upper surface of the coral reef being built up steadily to keep pace with the subsidence. Ceasing to build upward when the surface of the water is reached, the coral polyps build outward, thus increasing the breadth of the reef.

Regains Speech.

SPRINGFIELD, O.—The story of how the extraction of two teeth resulted in restoration of John H.
Happesett's speech and of the use of the muscles in his face and left arm is told here as follows.

For three years an invalid as the result of a stroke of paralysis, causing the loss of his speech and paralyzing the left side of his face and left arm, John Happesett, of Mechanicsburg, is rapidly recovering following the extraction of two molar teeth by a local dentist.

Three-quarters of an hour after Happesett had been in the dentist's chair the doctor's assistant noticed him blinking his left eye and that his crooked mouth was growing straighter. He was making an effort to talk. The doctor was called and immediately went through vowels with Happesett. When Happesett uttered his name, for the first time in three years, both doctor and patient shed tears of joy.

The two molar teeth had been bearing on certain nerves, causing paralysis of the upper lip, left eyelid, left arm and loss of speech.
Happesett's face is now normal, his voice has returned and he is slowly regaining strength in his left arm.

REDMOND AT AVALON

Grauville Redmond, one of Southern California's best known painters of the great out-of-doors, is now at Catalina for a summer of sketching. Born deaf and dumb, Redmond yet speaks a language more expressive than words can ever be—the universal language of art—and speaks it exceedingly well. He was educated in the California Institute for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, and later he studied art and won the Brown gold medal and an honorable mention from the best study from life at the San Francisco Art Association. Later he entered the Julian Academy in Paris, studying under Benjamin Contant and Jean Paul Laurens. A landscape exhibited by him in the Paris Salon was sent to the Seattle Exposition and acquired by the State of Washington; it is now hanging in the Capitol.

Struck with the beauty of a sketch that Redmond was making near Hollywood some months ago, Charles Chaplin, famous motion-picture comedian, became interested in the artist and his work and offered him an atelier in his new studios, the "English village." A bond of sympathy and understanding seem to have drawn together the slender little man, king of funmakers, and the robust and silent painter. Chaplin is collecting Redmond pictures for his private collection. There is no business relation between the artist of the canvas and the artist of the cinema—only that of mutual appreciation and admiration.

Redmond can paint solitude, yet somehow he does not convey the feeling of loneliness. In one of his recent studies, the bay at Avalon before the leaving of the fishing boats for the day's sport, he shows the gulls resting on the cold blue of the water. The glow of the rising sun is diffused over the blue. In his studies of cliffs and the surge of waves on the leeward side of Catalina Island he gives us both strength and grandeur. His skies are made vibrant by his modification of the method employed by the French pointillists.

He has already made twenty studies at Catalina Island, and expects to double the number before he leaves its enchantments.—Los Angeles Times.

How Coolidge Won His Wife

About 1904 Mr. Coolidge met Miss Grace A. Goodhue, a teacher in the Clark School for the Deaf in Northampton. He showed her the attentions that a studious young man might be expected to pay to an attractive young lady—and no more. Vacation time came and Miss Goodhue went home to Burlington, Vt. Shortly afterward Coolidge appeared in Burlington and called on the Goodhues. He called so industriously that the young lady's parents asked her what he meant. She couldn't enlighten them. Then Mr. Goodhue addressed himself to the young man. "Are you in Burlington on business, Mr. Coolidge?" he asked.

"No," said the future Governor. "Well, may I ask what you are here for?" demanded the elder.

"To marry Grace," was the calm answer.

When Mr. Goodhue recovered his breath he managed to inquire: "Have you said anything to her about this?"

"Not yet," was the response.

Within a week they were married—and a most happy union it has proved. Mrs. Coolidge is idolized by all who know her, and has been of the greatest assistance to her husband in his career.

They have a modest home in a good but quiet street. The principal of the city schools occupies the other half of the double house. Their two sons, John and Calvin, Jr., until recently carried newspapers. They are being brought up to be just as sturdy and self-reliant as their father was.—Fred John Splitstone in Leslie's.

SAN FRANCISCO

[Send news of interest to D. S. Luddy, 124 Primrose Road, Burlingame, or care of Bulletin Composing Dept., San Francisco.]

Miss Mary Hutton, the talented young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hutton, is one of the pretty nurses at the St. Francis Hospital in San Francisco.

Miss Irene Lynch, of Berkeley, has been enjoying a couple of weeks' vacation. She spent some time in Millbrae, being the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gore. She also went down to San Jose with Mrs. Gore to visit Miss Darling.

Mr. Theodore Grady, of Berkeley, was held up and knocked unconscious. The highwaymen took a bank book from him.

Miss Edith Dees, of San Bruno, lately sold her Burlingame property. She also owns property in Chicago, her old home.

Mr. O'Rourke returned from a visit to Los Angeles, and says Los Angeles is not in it as compared to San Francisco's metropolitan appearance. He also found Los Angeles' business district is not as clean as San Francisco's.

Mr. and Mrs. Gore, who live by the highway that runs from San Francisco to San Jose, on the Mills estate at Millbrae, will give a moonlight party the latter part of August. A big company of mutes will no doubt be on hand. The Mills mansion is not very far from Mr. and Mrs. Gore's residence, and the estate is a show place in itself. Just imagine yourself enjoying a party among the tall eucalyptus and pine trees and the moon smiling down upon you. Mr. Gore is engineer at the big dairy on this estate.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Norton recently gave a party to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their wedding, which was a swell affair. About thirty deaf friends were present.

Mr. Ellis, hearing son of Mrs. Roberts, of Los Angeles, who got tired of moving picture business, is now in San Francisco, and expects to settle here or across the bay in Oakland.

Mr. O'Rourke, while visiting the southern part of this State, met Mr. Redmond, the artist, on Catalina Island, where he is spending some time. Mr. Redmond said he took part in Charlie Chaplin's play "The Kid," which will appear on the screen soon.

Mr. Albert Hole, who has been a resident of San Francisco for the past few years, sailed for Australia recently. Mr. Hole was educated at Brighton, England. He lived in Seattle and Canada before coming to San Francisco. He had a lucrative position as upholsterer.

Mr. De Martini has sold his motorcycle and intends to get a new Ford. He is looking for a job in San Francisco or around the bay, as his father sold his ranch at Brentwood for $20,000.00, and has moved to Oakland.

Robert E. Kennedy, one of the "hurry-up" members of the Examiner composing room, is contemplating a visit to his gold mines in Mariposa County, after completing the essay he purposes to enter in a $10,000 prize contest.—Typographical Topics in San Francisco Labor Clarion.

Mr. Kennedy is a graduate of the Iowa School, and came to San Francisco some twenty years ago.

Coming to San Francisco? If so don't forget that the Frats hold their social and business meetings at Druids' Temple, 144 Page Street. Mr. Taylor, who came here a few years ago from North Dakota, accompanied Mr. Pike on his trip East. I forgot to mention this in my last letter.

PHILADELPHIA.

News items for this column should be sent to James S. Reide, 1538 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Charles M. Pennell tendered her husband a surprise party in honor of his birthday on Saturday evening, July 31st. Returning home from the lawn fete at Mr. and Mrs. Sanders' home in Mt. Airy, Mr. Pennell unexpectedly entered the parlor and found it crowded with friends, who then arose in a body and enthusiastically greeted and congratulated him. He was thus very pleasantly surprised and pleased to see his friends. The dining-room had been very prettily decorated for the occasion by Miss Viola M. R. Neill, Mrs. Pennell's niece, and it was much admired when the guests gathered in it to partake of an appetizing collation. Mr. Pennell was the recipient of a number of very pretty and useful gifts, and the occasion proved a very pleasant one for all. Besides the persons named above, there were present Mr. and Mrs. Peter Neill, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Scargle, Mrs. Eugene Rishell, Mr. and Mrs. George A. LeVan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Gunkel, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Yerkes, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Richards and their little son, Mrs. Thomas Wallwork, Miss Iva Rishell, Miss Mary Baskin, Miss Alice Eyster and Mr. Earl Rishell.

Mr. Pennell is very well known in this locality, having served as Treasurer of All Souls' Church for the Deaf for about ten years, and moreover, he is known as an exemplary young man, so that the honor shown him on this occasion was a well-deserved compliment.

On Saturday afternoon and evening of July 31st, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Sanders tendered the use of the spacious lawn in the rear of their home in Mt. Airy for a lawn fete for the benefit of the Gallaudet Club. The weather was most propitious for such an occasion until well on in the evening, when it turned inclement and the shelter of the porch of the house was sought. Except for this slight change, the occasion passed off very pleasantly and enjoyably.

Mr. Sylvan G. Stern and his hearing brother have sold their interest in the flower-shop and greenhouse, which they had conducted in Holmesburg for the past year or two, because of continued difficulty to hire the labor needed for the business. The new owner has since engaged Mr. Sylvan to remain with him temporarily, in order to profit by the scientific training which he had gained before going into business for himself, which includes raising of crops, ventilation, watering, heating, fertilizing, insecticiding, etc. Mr. Sylvan is a young man yet, and of such promise that he will no doubt drift into some other useful occupation in which his industry will be valued.

A few weeks ago, Messrs. Louis C. Lovett, William Klein and Sylvan G. Stern, visited New York City with the object of taking in the strawberry festival of the Hebrew Association of the Deaf. They prolonged their stay in the city several days, to do visiting about the city and some organizations of the deaf.

Frances, the five-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jahn, of Howarth Street, Frankfurt, was given a birthday party by her parents on the evening of July 22d last. Eight children and six adults of the neighborhood were invited to the party, and had a merry time together. Mrs. Jahn made the children very happy with games. They also enjoyed a treat of ice-cream, candy, bananas and a pound cake. The large cake, which held five candles, was presented to Frances by Mr. Kasimer Kieronski, of Frankfurt, and a former pupil of the Mt. Airy School. Mr. Washington Houston's two grandchildren and Christopher Scott's little daughter were among the folks at the party. Frances' presents consisted of two pairs of stockings, silk handkerchief, colored ribbons, etc., and ten dollars from Mr. Jahn's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Salter and Mr. Washington Houston visited Mr. and Mrs. Martin C. Fortescue at the Presbyterian Home for Aged Couples, at Bala, a short time ago.

Messrs. Hugh Boyd and William Firestone, of York, Pa., were visitors at All Souls' Church for the Deaf, on Sunday morning, August 1st.

Mrs. Irby H. Marchman returned home after about a month's visit at places in New England, looking very well.

On Sunday, 25th, Mr. Sylvan G. Stern had an outing to Ocean City to see his parents, who are sojourning there for the summer months.

HARTFORD.

A recent notice in the daily Courant of this city announces the engagement of a daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Geo. F. Stone to a Mr. Hart, of Springfield.

Miss Katherine Gallaudet has closed her apartment on Gillett Street for the summer and early fall, and is spending part of the time at her brother's summer home in Vermont.

Miss Catherine M. Chase, of Boston, who is spending the summer at her sister's home in Thompsonville, Ct., was a visitor in Hartford, Thursday, July 29th.

Miss Eliza Green, of the school, has been staying in Cogswell Hall since June, and is planning to spend August boarding at Miss Fannie Timmerman's in this city.

Mr. Walter G. Durian, teacher in the Industrial Department at the school, is employed at Greer's Printing Company's office. Mario Santin, of Gallaudet College, is also working there for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Frelick, of Stamford, Ct., were week-end guests of Mrs. Mary Dougherty and Miss Mary Oxley, at West Haven-on-the-Sound, July 17th and 18th.

Mrs. Olive Derby Beers, of Bridgeport, was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Royden, in Milford.

There was a very pretty home wedding at Rockville on Wednesday, June 16th, when Carl Berer, of Bristol, and Ella Forrest were married. After a brief wedding trip to Portland, Me., the couple will go to housekeeping in New Britain, as no rents are available in Bristol, where the groom works.

Earl Smith and Preston Barr, of Springfield, have recently moved to Hartford. Mr. Smith works at the U. S. Tire Co.'s, and Mr. Barr at Underwood's Typewriter Co's.

Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Bryant and their daughter, of Washington, D. C., are spending the summer at their cottage at Indian Neck Beach, Branford, Ct. Walter C. Rockwell's parents have an attractive summer cottage in the same locality.

A son, Clarence, was born June 23d, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Stevenson, at Saybrook. This is their sixth child, and a lively flock they are too. All the children have normal hearing.

The daily papers hereabouts recently announced that Rev. Herbert Gallaudet, recently an Army Chaplain and a Captain in A. E. F. in France, has been called and accepted the call to the First Congregational Church of Waterbury, Ct. He is a son of the late Edward M. Gallaudet.

Miss Florence Miller, of Hudson, N. Y., spent the week end July 10th and 11th, as guest of Mrs. Arnold Meier, at Waterbury, Ct.

Mr. A. A. Stevenson, Miss Theresa Gaffney and Miss Mary Chagnon, of New Haven, were recent visitors in Portchester, N. Y., on the occasion of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon Marshall, nee Emma Scott.

The first week in July, Tuesday, the 6th, if we are not mistaken, the body of Mortimer W. Seaman, who died at his daughter's home in New York City, was brought to Bridgeport for burial beside his wife. A few of the Bridgeport deaf attended the services at the grave. Mr. Seaman had been an employee of the Crane Valve Co., of Bridgeport, for thirty-five years, retiring on small pension some four or five years ago. In his younger and more active years he had been a jolly and popular man among the deaf. His age was sixty-five years.

Prof. John E. Crane, Mrs. Crane, and five other members of his family, are spending the summer months at Deer Island, Me., where they have been accustomed to go for many summers. It is Mrs. Crane's home.

Miss Mary E. Atkinson has been spending some weeks in Philadelphia. Most of the time she has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sanders at Mt. Airy. It is a pleasant place—that attractive Sanders home—as we have occasion to remember a good number of years ago.

Miss Mary G. Barron and Miss Dunbar, teachers at the School, have purchased an attractive residence in West Hartford, and will occupy part of it this Fall, and rent part of it. It is quite near the new school and a neighbor to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Luther. The house is on the corner of Main Street and Whitman Avenue. West Hartford is a growing and an attractive suburb of Hartford, four miles west of our city hall.

The New England Gallaudet Association has a convention in Providence, R. I. If we remember correctly the date as officially published in the JOURNAL some time ago, was Monday and Tuesday, September 6th and 7th. No program has been seen. No list of hotels; so most of our New England deaf are not very well posted as to what is to be done, or where to go when we get there. However, the powers that be in the matter may give out more information, but the time is short.

The N. A. D. convention at Detroit, August 9-14, will not draw a very large delegation from New England. For one reason it is an expensive trip, and the N. A. D.

was never very strong here in New England. A large number of our orally educated deaf in New England have never even heard of it. We shall be interested to learn what new scheme some bright and enthusiastic soul has started to solicit funds from the deaf to build a memorial to some good dead man, who don't, in the least, need it, and who, if living, would protest against it with all his might; or to endow something or other that may seem important now, but that time and changing ideals and conditions of deaf life may make utterly futile and worthless. In bygone days this Old Hartford School has been the place and scene of some so-called memorials that today are "one with Neneveh and Tyre," mere broken stones and junk. The one, and, in our opinion, the only advantage of these larger gatherings of the deaf is not so much what is done, or said, or resolved, as it is the opportunity that is offered to see and to meet able and attractive types of deaf men and women. And it is never what anybody, living or dead, has done for them, so much as what they, in and of themselves, have accomplished in the world by their own faith, courage, intelligence and persistency.

H.
HARTFORD, Ct., July 31, 1920.

AKRON, O.

About forty-seven friends united in giving a silverware shower surprise to Miss Eulalia M. Stakley, 123 Berkley Avenue, Thursday evening, July 15th, whose marriage to Robert C. Burdick, of Pittsfield, Mass., will take place, Thursday, August 5th. Several games were enjoyed until a late hour, when refreshments were served. Mrs. Edward Faass and James M. Trainor supervised the happy event during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Burdick will make their home in Pittsfield, Mass., where he is employed as electrician for the General Electric Company. Mr. Burdick is a graduate of the American School for the Deaf at Hartford, Ct. His happy bride formerly attended school at the Edgewood Institution at Edgewood Park, Pa.

Grover Burchman, of Huntington, W. Va., is visiting his sister in this city. He is a marble cutter in that city. He has a deaf brother, who is an employee of the Ohio Institution at Columbus.

Mrs. F. X. Zitnik is planning to go to attend the N. A. D. Convention at Detroit by boat from Cleveland. She will expect to meet her many old friends there. Some day she may take a trip to Niagara Falls by boat from Cleveland. She likes Akron very much as she makes a better living here for the first time in twelve years since she moved here two years ago from Chicago, but she misses her friends there anyway.

Fred Moore, quarterback on the Goodyear Silents foot ball team, has been elected coach of the team for the coming season. Scott Cusaden was elected captain.—Wingfoot Clan.

Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Zitnik were married fifteen years ago, on August 2d, and theirs was the second crystal wedding to be observed in the Goodyear Silent Colony, which was done on last Sunday. Mr. Zitnik was necessarily let in on the secret, and the surprise was all on the unsuspecting Mrs. Zitnik, and an agreeable surprise it was to her. Mr. Zitnik invited his friends to a turkey dinner at the Goodyear Hall Cafeteria. A table was specially reserved for them by the management, and covers were laid for twenty guests. After the feasting was over, a member of the party arose and reviewed Mr. and Mrs. Zitnik's happy married life, and the hope was expressed that they would live long enough to burn the mortgage on their house in Akron. Mr. Zitnik made a happy response and promised that when the time came to burn the mortgage, he would hold a big celebration to which he would invite the same friends, who were present if they lived until then. Laughter and applause. The whole party adjourned to Mr. Zitnik's house which had been tastefully decorated by the men and ladies of the company, and Mrs. Zitnik was almost overcome by the sight of the glittering array of cut glass on the table. It was touching to witness her surprise and delight at the following display: a water set consisting of a beautiful pitcher and a dozen glasses on a mirror-like tray, a plateau, combination pickle and olives dish, a jelly dish, pepper and salt cellars, celery tray, sugar creamer, mustard dish, comport, fruit bowl, salad bowl, cake plate, vase, cracker bowl and a butter dish. The glass ware was all of one pattern beautifully chased. The display showed excellent taste and good judgment on the part of Mrs. Cady and Mrs. Wilson, the reception committee, who made the purchases. The presentation was made by Mrs. Cady in the following written letter:—

"To Mr. and Mrs. Zitnik, please accept these presents from us with our best wishes for your health and happiness, on the occasion of the fifteenth anniversary of your wedding." A list of donors was given in the same letter. A mock marriage ceremony was performed before supper by a member of the company dressed in clerical costume with Mr. and Mrs. Zitnik as the victims. What with Mrs. Zitnik's blushing protests and Mr. Zitnik's witty responses in which he made several objections to the ceremony made the whole affair highly entertaining. To add to the gaiety of the occasion, the bride and bride-groom were showered with rice by the guests. A substantial supper was served by the ladies, after which the fun grew fast and furious. In the game of "Forfeits," some of the men were ordered by W. H. Wherry in the chair to help the ladies wash the dishes for which he received their blessing. The rest of the evening was passed in old fashioned games. Miss Kirby, a charming young lady, who works in the Goodyear office, dropped in unexpectedly in the course of the evening, and was made welcome.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Cady, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Dianginis, Mr. and Mrs. Wherry, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Miss Silbermann, Messrs. Pearce, Denton, Stanley and Jensen besides F. X. Zitnik Jr., the Boy Scouts.

Your correspondent and his wife were unlucky to miss this brilliant gathering, for the same evening they visited the site of the famous Silent Co-operative grocery, and found some progress made in the excavation of the foundation. They went into Mrs. Wherry's kitchen across the street, and found nobody at home and in returning, we passed Mr. Zitnik's house, and lost the opportunity of witnessing the celebration of the second crystal wedding in Akron.

John Leopold has accepted a position in a tailoring and dry cleaning establishment on East Exchange Street, corner Spices Street.

Mrs. H. W. Dille, formerly Miss Thurston, will leave shortly for a visit among her relatives and friends in the East.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Zitnik, who recently returned home from the Akron Boy Scouts' motor truck trip to Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York, gained six pounds in avoirdupois and is looking fine and robust.

AKRONITE.

Poughkeepsie

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jeynes and Miss Annie C. Kugeler, of Jersey City, were in Poughkeepsie to spend a few days with Mrs. Annie L. McConnell. They were shown the Vassar College buildings with Mrs. McConnell, by a pretty young student. They think Poughkeepsie a more beautiful city than they expected. They all went to visit the deaf-mutes at Gallaudet Home.

Gibson W., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson McConnell, went to Y. M. C. A. Camp, Wa Wa Segowea, at Anacran, N. Y., on the 15th, for three weeks. He thinks camp is great. His youngest brother, William W., has gone to Jersey City with Mr. and Mrs. Jeynes for a visit.

Mr. James H. Caton and Mr. Soper, of the Gallaudet Home, were in Poughkeepsie to spend a day with Mrs. McConnell on Friday.

Mrs. William McLaughlin and daughter, of Brooklyn, were in town to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. John Costello.

Mrs. McConnell expects to go to Gallaudet Home again to attend the church service on August 8th.

Messrs. John Arnhart and James Thomas, of Poughkeepsie, made a short visit at Gallaudet Home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hurley and family, formerly of Salt Point, N. Y., have moved to Poughkeepsie. Mr. Hurley bought a house on Church Street.

Mrs. John D. Buckley and son came to Poughkeepsie by boat to spend a few days with her friend, Mrs. McConnell. Her son was homesick, because Gibson was away, so they went home sooner than they had planned.

Mr. and Mrs. George Donovan and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Buckley, came to Poughkeepsie by boat on Saturday until Sunday afternoon. In the morning they went out to see what this town looked like. They were surprised to see that Poughkeepsie is a large and beautiful city. They fell in love with Poughkeepsie, and said they would pay it another visit. I hope they will not disappoint Poughkeepsie. POUGHKEEPSIAN.

Deaf-Mute Typist.

AKRON, O., July 25.—Miss Florence Isabel Nibrett, of Niles, O., has made a record as a typist though she can neither hear nor speak.

After graduating from the Ohio School for the Deaf, she went to work in the Goodyear Rubber Works in Akron as a typewriter operator.

Her proficiency attracted the attention of the women in charge of the department in which she worked. Miss Nesbitt then was placed in the training school for office workers. In three weeks she mastered a course that usually requires seven weeks of study.

FANWOOD.

The Pupils' library in the Academic Building is being overhauled. All the relics, curiosities, etc., which for years have occupied the library room are being removed. When this is done new fixtures and last but not least good readable books will find places in the shelves, and when school reopens in the Fall, the pupils will, indeed, be pleased with the new arrangements now being made for their benefit.

There are to be other improvements to be made, but at this writing it is better to wait a while yet before giving out information.

Norah K. White came into the School as a new pupil last week. Her previous education was at a private school at Baltic, Ct. Her home is in Canada.

Among the returned workers of this Institution from their vacation last week were: Misses Dorothy Maulfair, Carrie Imboden, Carrie Eiler, Mr. Ralph Annin; and those now going on vacation are: Misses Ethel Albright, Lucille Feder, Mary Moore, Rebecca Sutcliffe, girls' tutors, quits here. Miss King, plain swing instructor, spends her vacation in Canada.

Miss Agnes Craig returned to her old career here—girls' tutor—without a grouch, as she had the most wonderful vacation she ever had in her life, both at Philadelphia and Magnolia, N. J. She looks as if she had gained a few pounds in weight.

Listen Fanwood girls! Last week Miss Agnes Craig received a letter from Miss Florence Hughes, one of the most beautiful girls of her time here, saying that she enjoys her life in Cleveland, O., but misses her old Fanwood girls very much.

Frances H. Brown, formerly educated at St. Joseph's School for the Deaf at Brooklyn, N. Y., was entered here as a new pupil last week.

James Garrick came into the Printing Office to learn more of typography Friday, August 6th. For several weeks he was employed as a cylinder press feeder by a small printing firm somewhere in the Audubon section.

Otto Johnson took a trip by the Hudson River Day Line boat to Poughkeepsie Friday, August 6th, and returned here at night. There he visited the scenes of his childhood at St. Joseph's School for homeless boys at Poughkeepsie.

Friday, August 3th, Emil Landfeldt, Benjamin Shafranek, Kermit Siegel, made a short visit here. They said they could not find a job for the summer. Say, boys, when you return to school this Fall, learn your trade with all your heart and skill!

James McVernon came to have a short business talk with Principal Gardner. He is to leave the school earlier than his time in the Fall, as he is offered a position as military instructor at the Kansas School for the Deaf at Olathe, Kan., of which Mr. Elwood A. Stevenson, a former professor here, is principal. Let us wish him success in his new field of work.

Max Cohen spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother and relatives in the country at Cranbury, N. J.

Saturday, August 7th, Walter Weisenstein dropped in here to see what this Institution looks like during the summer.

John Seltzer with his youngest sister spent Sunday, August 8th, at the grounds of this Institution.

Those representing Fanwood at the Detroit Convention of the National Association, now in session, are Mr. Edwin A. Hodgson and Dr. Thomas F. Fox, both ex Presidents of the Association. Both have been connected with the organization from the start. Miss Alice E. Judge also of this school is in attendance at the Convention.

Merritt Klopsch was at the Institution on Monday afternoon. On account of a "bile" in his left cheek he was unable to attend to work.

"Deaf and Dumb."

DETROIT, July 28.—That he was deaf and dumb was the plea offered in court by Walter Stanley as an excuse for begging, until His Honor asked in a very low voice:

"Were you in the service?"
"Yes, Your Honor," the deaf and dumb man said quickly. "And I'm a member of the American Legion, too."

Takes Life by Gals

Miss Luna Bemis, forty-five years old, who lived alone at No. 1245 Amsterdam Avenue, and who a year ago was forced to give up her position of teacher in one of the public schools because of increased deafness, committed suicide in her home by inhaling gas.

Friendlessness and increased deafness are believed to have been the cause.—N. Y. World.

NEW YORK.

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station A, New York.

A few words of information in a letter postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

The whereabouts of Mr. Roy D. Jones, deaf-mute, 37 years old, who deserted his family (Edith Jones and three children) from St. Louis, Mo., July 11th, 1919, is being sought. He is a suit presser by trade, at least that is the occupation he pursued in St. Louis prior to his disappearance. He deserted his family twice before.

An item appeared in the JOURNAL a short time ago signed "Ben Hur," and reference was made to a Mr. Jones at Fort Worth, Texas. Mrs. Jones wrote there, but the clue was not the right one.

Mrs. Jones is at present in Iron-ton, Mo., with her youngest child, being with a married brother. Mr. Jones' mother has the other two children, but she is a tubercular, and other plans must be made.

If any of the readers know of the whereabouts of Mr. Roy D. Jones, and will at once communicate the information to the Investigating Bureau of the Charity Organization Society, 105 East 22d Street, New York City, they will be doing a great service.

If Roy D. Jones should read the above, and notify the above Society that he is willing to return to his family, all will be well and the case will be dropped.

If on the hand Roy D. Jones continues to hide himself from his family, the search for him will be continued until he is found.

The cosy little Holmes bungalow at Clason Point, on the Sound, was the scene of a lively gathering last Saturday night. The Holmes family have been stopping at their camp there since early in May, and Mrs. Holmes was beginning to hanker the sight of the old town. And it being her birthday, her hubby thought it a good chance to gratify her wishes, and incidentally pave the way for the evening's entertainment, so that afternoon they went down to Times Square via the subway and followed the green line to the Grand Central, where they boarded the tube train for Long Island City. Arriving there, Mr. Holmes pointed out his place of employment, came back over the Queensboro Bridge, took in the movies on Broadway, and arrived home at 9:30 P.M., only to find a lot of friends had taken possession during their absence, and so transformed the rooms with flags, bunting, etc., they did not know what to make of it. Mrs. Agnes Brown, who is also sojourning there for the summer, was in charge, and as might be expected, she made things most interesting. Lot of new games were played and some of the old ones. A most appetizing buffet lunch was on tap all the evening, and Billy Deegan, acting as bartender, concocted some of the most delectable high balls obtainable this side of Havana.

Mrs. Holmes was remembered by her friends with many pretty gifts. The last trolley car left Clason Point at 2 o'clock A.M., and it carried back most of the guests of the evening.

Among those present, besides the Holmes family, were: Mr. and Mrs. Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. H. Pierce Kane, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Victor, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton, Mrs. Agnes Brown and daughter, Mr. Lunt, Messrs. J. C. Howard, of Duluth, Minn.; W. W. Beadell, of Arlington, N. J.; William J. Deegan, William Renner, Perry Victor and Mr. Holmes.

Miss Emma V. Reed, of Staten Island, was killed by an automobile on Monday, August 2d, at Fort Wadsworth, S. I. Miss Reed was educated at Fanwood, graduating from the High Class about forty-five years ago. She was a lady of unusual intelligence, of amiable disposition and irreproachable character. The funeral, which was private, was held at her home on Thursday, August 5th.

Mr. Abraham Marks, who for many years has been a faithful employe of Reed & Burton Co., the Silversmiths and Jewellers of Fifth Avenue, has been rewarded with a foremanship of one of their department. Last Thursday he was at the rooms of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League with Mrs. Marks and three of his sons, and seemed to enjoy the meeting of old friends, whom he had not seen for some time.

Mrs. Mineker (nee Clara DeRouville), of Albany, with her son, was a guest of the Misses Brewer at Mt. Vernon for a week. They had an enjoyable time sightseeing, and at Ulmer Park last Saturday, and then went to Coney Island. Clara had not seen New York for twenty-two years, and her son had never been in New York. He says he likes Albany better.

Mrs. Abraham Solomon and the kiddies have for some time been at Kiamasha Lake, N. Y., and expect to remain till next fall. Abe, who is a first class carpenter, had the misfortune to injure the middle finger of his right hand, and as it became infected he was unable to work, so he has gone to join his family at Kiamasha Lake.

Mr. Lyman Metzger finds time hangs heavily on his hands. It is now ten weeks since the Union, of which he is a member, declared a strike for forty hours a week, and he sees no end in sight. He belongs to the Furriers Union. He hopes a settlement will soon be reached, as he can't stand idleness much longer.

Mrs. Max Miller is spending the summer in Brookline, Mass., with her daughter, Mrs. Bessie Levy. Her youngest son, Walter, is in camp at Bear Mountain with the Boy Scouts. Max and her oldest son, Irving, are left at home all alone, because they are unable to get away at this time.

Mrs. Samuel Lowenherz has been at Liberty, N. Y., since July 15th, and expects to remain there for the rest of the summer. Her lord joined her last Saturday, but returned on Sunday, in order to be on time at his place of business Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Weiner are rejoicing over the advent of a baby-boy, which the stork delivered on Saturday, July 31st, 1920, and weighs just five and a half pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Weiner have another boy, now over two years of age.

Mr. Nathan Dobsavage last Thursday left his place of business for good, but expects to secure a better position ere long. In the meantime Nathan enjoys the fine brand of ball the Giants have been playing these last few days.

Miss Lonia Mueller, of Philadelphia, was at the picnic of the Clark Club on July 31st. She was a guest of Mrs. William Ault, and on Tuesday of last week they visited the JOURNAL office.

Mrs. Calvine Bella O'Brien (nee Felver), beloved wife of Mr. John Francis O'Brien, passed away suddenly, though peacefully, while asleep, early Monday morning, August 9th, 1920.

Mr. Albert Victor Ballin left for Arverne, L. I., last Saturday, where for the rest of the summer he will cheer with his company the blind and deaf young man, Mr. Edwin Mosbacher.

Mrs. Martin Glynn, of Jersey City Heights, and her daughter, Grace, are spending a vacation of a few weeks at Keansburg, N. J.

Mrs. Skidmore (nee Nathalie Hilt-ton) with her son is spending two months' vacation at Monticello, Sullivan Co., N. Y.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. John E. Stafford (nee Carrie Lanz), of Brooklyn, N. Y., a girl, on Sunday, August 1st, 1920.

Miss Anna Hoffman and Evelyn Miller, who are now in Pawling, N. Y., expect to return home on the 17th of August.

Mrs. Yetta Eisenberg, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has gone to Hudson, N. Y., to stay a couple of weeks.

Mr. Charles Olsen was in Center Moriches, L. I., last week and had a fine time.

To Educate and Treat Deaf and Dumb Children.

MANILA, P. I., July 18.—The Philippine Associations of the United States have inaugurated a nation-wide campaign for the treatment and education of children who are deaf or dumb or both. A joint committee, including members from each organization, has been appointed to draw up plans.

Assistance of State Medical Societies, State Board of Health and from Congress, will be sought in order that the campaign may be made quickly effective. It is planned to list all children suffering from defective oral or auditory organs, to establish day schools throughout the country for the instruction of these special pupils, and finally, to standardize the course of instruction, according to the most modern methods.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Revenue collections in the United States leaped to $33,850,150.078 for 1919 from $809,393,640 in 1917.

"The War Graves Map" is now a popular publication in Europe. In its larger form it shows 2,000 military cemeteries, and in the more detailed editions it shows the numbered graves.

There is less alloy in Canadian silver than in the United States coins, but the American silver pieces consist of a purer and finer quality of silver.

Chinese students are not permitted to work for pay in the United States. To do so would violate the law prohibiting the immigration of Chinese workmen.

In the pension lists of Britain as a result of the war, there are 189,487 widows, 1,038,990 children, and 333,500 other dependents.

OHIO.

[News items for this column may be sent to our Ohio News Bureau, care of Mr. A. B. Greener, 993 Franklin Ave., Columbus, O.]

August 7, 1920.—After the N. A. D. meeting in Detroit the next affair in which Ohioans are particularly interested in, will be their Alumni Association meeting at the school, where gloom and ignorance melted away to light and darkness, and they were sent forth to fight life's battles equipped for the fray.

The forthcoming meeting will be of more than ordinary interest, in that it marks the fiftieth anniversary of the formation of the Association, and a record crowd is expected according to the Chairman of the Executive Committee, who has been overwhelmed with applications for rooms, and finds it difficult to place all. However every one will be provided, even if the hospital will have to be resorted to, and when that is filled also, further sleeping accommodations can be provided for at the School for the Blind, a five minutes walk from our school.

Another point of interest will be to receive reports of the twenty Captains in charge of the Drive for the Men's Building Fund.

It is hoped many of the old timers will be on hand, and for the benefit of all, some of the stunts of the olden days of the school will be staged.

Following is the program, so do not fail to come and make the biggest, happiest reunion yet held.

The deaf of Adams, Brown, Clermont and Highland Counties held their annual picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Behymer on July 4th, with an attendance of thirty-five. A general good time was had by the visitors. Another picnic was given on the 18th ult., at the home of Miss Grace Evans, near Russellville, Ohio. While the attendance was not large, owing to distance, yet those who were there pronounced it an enjoyable occasion. A. B. G.

BALTIMORE.

Nearly three hundred deaf mutes with their relatives and friends from all parts of Maryland and nearby States attended the 39th annual picnic of the Maryland Deaf. It was an ideal day, which tempted all the Baltimoreans to come out of their hiding places. It was the largest crowd gathered at Grove No. 8, Druid Hill Park this summer.

About fifty pupils, ranging from six to seventeen years old, spent the entire day in the park, played on the green grass, ate as much as they wanted and paid calls to the animals. They chatted with the monkeys and sympathized with the bears which wear such heavy coats of fur in summer.

Chairman Kauffman made a few remarks and introduced Mr. Ignatius Bjorlee, Superintendent of the Maryland School for the Deaf, to an audience, and Mr. Bjorlee took his subject as "The Value of Sign Language to the Deaf." He pointed out that many persons had come to look upon the deaf as defectives, and were surprised to find, upon visiting the school, that the pupils were normal people. He said he had fourteen classes numbering one hundred and fifty pupils, who are being taught lip reading, so that they may be able to talk with the persons they will meet in the business world. He said many former pupils of the Maryland School have been successful in various branches of trade, particularly as machinists, printers, linotype operators, wall papers, painting contractors, engravers, lithographers, owner of a big shoe repairing shop, chemist, and others. After his talk the deaf-mutes scattered for their lunches. Numerous games were indulged in, including a pie-eating contest, three legged race, 100-yard running backward race, 100-yard dash, tug-of-war for males and females combined. Those who took part in the games and won prizes are as follows:—

100-yard Running Backward Race—Rozelle McCall, safety razor.

100-yard Dash—Miss Sophia Schmuft, 14½ seconds, a fine umbrella.

95 yard Hop—Emma Werner, pocket book.

Poavnt Race—Miss Florence Mason, writing papers.

Pie Eating Contest—Herbert Leitch, subscription to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL.

Shoe Race—H. G. Benson, fountain pen.

Three Legged Race—Abe Stern and Howard Hood, a pair of socks and a pair of cuff buttons.

Necktie Game—Miss Eloine Dean, breast pin.

The most exciting game was a tug-of-war between married and single men. The married men, Stone, 135; Price, 130; Brushwood, 140; Koeing, 140; Leitner, 170; and the single men, Abe Stern, 150; Hood, 155; Bernae, 160; Batchelor, 155; and H. Ewing, 160. It took several minutes before the married men won. Later they were changed by Kuhn's team, much heavier, but they were an easy proposition for the "champs." Then it was an easy mark for ten girls to pull five big men over the line. It was a great surprise to all. Then ice cream were served to all, and followed by an election of officers for the coming year 1920. George M. Leitner, Chairman; L. Brushwood, Secretary; Roy Kaufman, Treasurer; Committee, Misses E. Dean, Alma Daley, Helen Moss, Messrs H. Leitch, W. G. Stone and two others. Messrs. O. J. Whildin, W. G. Stone, and O. K. Price were chosen trustees of the picnic treasury.

The next day Tolchester Beach attracted over 150 deaf-mutes. The feature of the day was a ball game between Captain's Leitner Leitch and three girls played on each team. The former won a score of 17 to 5. Captain Leitch's eye was hit by a sharp curved ball thrown by Stone, the great pitcher of the St. Paul team, but his sharp curves made no difference to Leitner's team which put Babe Ruth to shame by knocking seven home runs in six innings. Bessie Moss played a good game making fourteen putouts while Helen Moss electrified the older people into fits when she handled a hot grounder by Price in a great style and threw the fastest runner out at 1st base from deep short stop field. After the game most of the tantes went bathing. Every body declared that the two outings were great and enjoyable.

Miss Gladly Leinewher has returned from Virginia, where she has been resting just in time to attend the picnic and bay trip.

Mrs. Geo. Flick, who visited her parents and friends in Baltimore for several weeks, has returned to her home in the Widy City.

Miss Florence Mason, of Crisfield, is visiting her classmates in this city. She is the guest of Miss Helen Leitner.

Miss Sophie Schmuft is sojourning in Sudlersville, and will stay there for a couple of weeks with Misses Mary and Helen Skinner.

Mrs. Hary, of Steelton, has returned home after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. P. Krastl during the picnic days in this city.

Mr. Hart, of Virginia, is in this city partly on business and partly on pleasure. He said Baltimore is too attractive for him to leave, so he is now in quest of work so that he may remain indefinitely.

Mrs. H. G. Benson and her daughter, Elizabeth, returned home after a week's visit with their relatives and friends. They also attended the picnic and excursion down the bay.

The deaf-mutes are visiting Carlin's Park every day, and are finding much enjoyment through the many amusement devices now in full operation. Over fifty mutes were seen there last night.

Virginia Brushwood and Edna Brewer were lost in Drind Hill Park walking south. Ye scribe found them on his way to the picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Krastel left Baltimore for Milwaukee, to attend the Convention held by the Catholic deaf from August 8th to 15th. Mr. Krastel was chosen as a delegate for Baltimore. G. M. L.

Deaf-Mutes Married.

WINCHESTER, VA., June 19.—Cleveland H. Christian, of Middletown, and Miss Mary R. Lineberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Lineberg, of Marlboro, both deaf-mutes, were married yesterday at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church by Rev. Charles Adey. The clergyman was at first perplexed as to how to perform the ceremony, but finally wrote the questions of the Baptist ritual, which were answered in writing by bride and groom and their signatures witnessed by a friend. After the ceremony the bride and groom, radiantly happy, left for their home engaged in an animated sign language conversation.

Besides purchasing the American war material left in that country, France is purchasing the British war material also. France will be some arsenal!
